

Around Siena

An unforgettable tour in the Italian region where many people coming from abroad for a visit have chosen to remain forever, enchanted by its sweet hilly landscapes, by its art treasures, by the refinement of its culture, its great wines and its delightful, country cuisine. This route conducts you through extraordinary valleys and territories such as Val d'Elsa, Chianti (very famous for its wines), Val d'Arno, Val d'Orcia, Crete senesi, via Francigena (ancient pilgrim route), among thick vineyards and wonderful hills. Cycling along pleasant minor roads in a continuous sweet ups and downs, you'll pass through Certaldo, birthplace of the novelist Boccaccio, S. Gimignano with its hundred towers, Volterra ancient and perfectly preserved medieval village on the top of a hill surrounded by a memorable landscape and, last but not least, Siena, with its marvellous Piazza del Campo, a round space where since many centuries the famous "Palio" takes place, its typical cathedral and the narrow medieval roads overlooked by noble palaces.
